Defendant.

MOTION TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF BOND

02 FEB 25 PM 3:10
CLARENCE HADDOX
CLERK U.S. DISTRICT
S.D. OF FLA - HIA
X

NOW COMES the Defendant, DAVID BELL, by and through his undersigned counsel, JEFFREY M. HARRIS, and respectfully prays unto this Honorable Court for an Order Modifying Conditions of Bond and as grounds therefore states the following:

1. The Defendant, David Bell, was released on bond on October 25, 2001.
2. One of the conditions of bond is that the Defendant must be home by 10:00 p.m.
3. The Defendant is married with four children and the curfew has created hardships in his personal and professional life.
4. Gavin Churchill, Pre-Trial Services Officer has no comment as to the Motion for Modification of conditions of Bond and acquiesces to the opinion of Brian McCormick, Assistant U.S. Attorney.
5. Assistant U.S. Attorney, Brian McCormick, after consulting with the lead agent, sees no need for the continuation of the curfew and does not object to the modification.
